B 1 BELLINA MARTINO TRONZO

born: October 11, 1891
died: November 29, 1973

place: Elk County, PA
inter: Calvary Cemetery, Punxsutawney, PA

Bellina and her husband, Gasper Tronzo, had ten children. At the time of his death in 1941 of throat cancer, Bellina still had six children living at home. She died in 1973 as the result of a stroke with subsequent heart failure. Bellina, or "Bell," was a very kind and generous woman. She was known to always have a house full of guests. She mostly enjoyed homemaking, cooking and visiting with friends. Her husband Gasper was a meat cutter. He owned Tronzo's Meat Market (in the house now owned by their daughter, Theresa Uvena). Later, when the business became more successful, it was moved to another location. Gasper retired early because he was crippled with rheumaty arthritis.
